

This International Men's Day in 2020, having grown worldwide in over 89 Countries, is a necessary attempt to look at violence in society from a man's perspective.

Fortunately, there are countless numbers of women with sons, fathers, brothers, nephews, uncles and grandfathers, who experience the pain of seeing the violence done to their loved ones.

One such woman in Kenya, Africa using the NGO she is affiliated with, to launch a massive 10-day Series of Activities in Kenya, this year to celebrate Men with a Gender Lens, exploring all aspects of violence in society.

A brilliant Project and I will post the PDF of this Project, with this MEMO below to said Librarian on the Cloud Archive link noted in post with the heading "Kenya's IMD 2020", <https://www.archive.org/details/@mavawsec>. Search Kenya's IMD 2020.

Ms. Phillip, to give you an idea of how far and deep this IMD movement is going, I will send you a PDF of the plans in Kenya for this year. There are plans in over 89 Countries to acknowledge this day and see the potential to reduce the impact of violence in society with the Academic Gender Lens.

Kenya's plan this year is led by a dynamic woman Faith Nashipire, seeing the need to change how men are viewed in society and living daily with the abuse men suffer in Africa.

Our legal status (Formal Documents) here, a registered non-profit company since the 2nd of January 2019. is located for sharing on a Cloud archive <https://www.archive.org/details/@mavawsec>. Search International Men's Day TT, in the search box, or just screen down until you see the JPEG Image of the First File. This effort lies alongside 63 plus billion other web pages, in the largest Cloud Archive in the world, all free for download and sharing.

A valuable Resource Base for all our Libraries here in Trinidad and Tobago. Our Archive has 181 Uploads to date, spanning insights into Architecture, Law, Social Psychology, Political Science and Parenting Science.

Now doing a Diploma Programme in Community Psychology, with the Alison Company Educational Courses Web site and after 11 Modules, successfully completed, have seen the intimate relation of this Field of study, with their great 53-year-old history, to my Research work of 5 Decades, in the Sector of Housing and Settlement Development, an Area in Domestic Architecture in the Built Environment Field.

My sincere thanks for the opportunity to be part of your Libraries effort here in TT, this year.
